pci
PHARMA SERVICES

Your world leading CDMO.

pci | bridge™   Real-time supply chain information

As a world class CDMO, we relentlessly strive to deliver better health outcomes for the patients we serve by combining our experience and expertise in science, manufacturing, and technology with our pristine customer service.

PCI's commitment and investment in digital transformation is an exciting journey and uses industry-leading technology to differentiate what we do. pci | bridge™ has been developed to complement our customer service and project management capabilities by creating efficient and uncomplicated ways of working together.
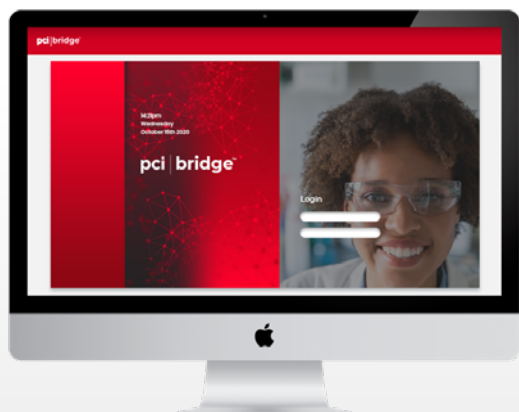

About pci | bridge™

pci | bridge™ is an industry-leading digital customer platform designed to provide you with real-time insights into your portfolio of work at our sites around the globe, unlocking productivity with access to real-time supply chain information and digital workflows.

Our innovative platform provides you with real-time visibility of your supply chain using cross-functional workflows and data-driven insights providing an enhanced customer experience through digital transformation.

pci | bridge™ has been developed to complement customer service and project management capabilities by creating efficient and uncomplicated ways of working together.

Together, delivering life changing therapies.

The features of pci | bridge™ include:
- Easy accessibility to production and distribution status
- Open invoicing and inventory information
- Documentation approvals
- Easy reporting features right at the touch of a button

The benefits of pci | bridge™ include:
- Real-time data access and insights
- Digitized workflows
- Enhanced project management tools and tracking
- Customizable reports
- Secured environment (cyber security)

Experience the power of full automation

With PCI's new Application Programming Interface (API), integration with your ERP system is made possible, enabling your staff to access the information they need and initiate transactions in a unified and automated way.

PCI's API eliminates the confusion and complication of email chains and spreadsheets, instead providing the ability to manage production processes with ease and simplicity.

Are you ready to experience the power?